pression. In the span of 90 minutes, they write and perform their show at a new musical theatre festival and learn lessons about themselves as people, friends and artists. [title of show] is, above all, a love letter to the musical theatre – a uniquely American art form – and to the joy of collaboration. The 90-minute show, which does not have an intermission, contains instances of mature language and themes. For tickets, visit mightcorson.com/boxoffice. Brandon Senior Citizens The Brandon Senior Citizens meet at 12:30 p.m. every Thursday at the VFW for Bingo, cards socializing and coffee. All seniors are welcome.

Ask the Motor Medics®

Automotive Advice from The Under the Hood® Show

Dear Motor Medics,

I picked up an electric Ford Lightning truck used. It's 2023 with 30k miles on it. My intended use was to and from work about 8 miles a day. My camper hauler was my 2004 F150 but the engine failed and due to the rust, I decided to scrap it. I travel about 100 miles at the most to camp and I'm not confident in the Electric Lightnings ability to tow my camper that far. It weighs 6k pounds. Do you think I can tow my camper without an issue?

Dear Martin,

You are asking us a lot if you want to know if everything will be ok. There is a lot to consider. Will the Lightning tow your camper as far as weight goes? Yes, it should be able to do that. Will it make it 100 miles one way with the air on and maybe wipers and a radio? Well, it's hard to say. The Lightning has been found to have a lower-than-expected range by many people when towing and the heavier the load the faster the range will fall. We would start by planning your camping along a route where you can charge the truck if needed and you can plan from there. Don't count on being able to charge at a campground as many prohibit that. Check online actual driver's forums to see what real world towing results have been before venturing out.

Take care, the Motor Medics.

Dear Motor Medics,

I have a 2020 Range Rover and I can't get anyone to work on it. I tried my regular shop which I have been using for over twenty years and they turned me down fast. They suggested a few others and all of them said the same thing. It's a very long drive to Omaha to get anything done and I have made that trip many times. It is out of warranty and things seem to keep breaking. Why won't shops repair it where I live? Is it that much different than working on a different kind of vehicle? Is there a way I can find out who in my area does work on them?

Thank you, Denver in Kearney Nebraska.

Dear Denver,

This is quickly becoming more of an issue for vehicle owners. As the technicians at shops age, they are not being replaced as fast as they leave and that goes for many businesses. Some of those techs were experienced with more specialized vehicles and now that they are gone the shop simply won't touch them. In some cases, there may still be a tech there who can do the work but to the complexity compared to other vehicles they focus on the quicker more profitable jobs. There is a learning curve to get up to speed on them and parts can be harder to get. Ask a local parts store what shops they see working on them.

Take care, the Motor Medics.
